I help self-employed executives with their business & personal insurance and investment needs.

My main competitors are death, disability, and critical illness, and it is my job to meet you before the competition does.

You can protect your family, your business, and your net worth in the event of a catastrophic or serious health issue. I help you ensure financial survival of the people and things that matter most in your life.

We all have risks in life and business. I help you mitigate that risk with time-proven strategies.

You will benefit from my over twenty-five years of industry experience, knowledge, and professionalism. I can provide you industry leading risk management products, with a focus on incorporating the best possible tax advantages.

Some comments my clients most often make about me are that I'm direct, and I don't waste your time. My diligence and persistence make me the guy who will return your call when expected.

I am easy to work with. My process begins with a comprehensive discovery process of your needs, continues with personalized recommendations to suit you, and finishes with excellent customer service throughout our relationship.
